

The 4 rules for correcting unwanted employee behavior

1. Any form of punishment (disciplinary sanction) must be preceded by a warning
2. The corrective measure should be intense enough to stop the behavior from reoccurring
3. The corrective measure must be administered as soon as the unwanted behavior happens
4. Remain calm and composed while notifying that the corrective measure will be applied

